February is BEE HAPPY month at the Oxbow Eco-Center

Be sure to stop by the Center during our hours of operation to try your hand at free self-guided activities

Birds of the Caribbean—

February 3 at 7:00pm. St. Lucie Audubon Society brings you Wes Biggs who will be presenting 'Birds of the Caribbean.'

Guided Hike—

February 5, 12, 19, and 26th at 9:30am. Take a free hike with our naturalists through the preserve.

Swamp Tales—

February 9th at 3:45pm. It's fun and free! For ages 3-6. Join us for a book called "Bee & Me" and join in a related activity afterward.

Nature for Families- "Bee Theater"—

February 12th, 12:30 - 2:30pm. Ever done the bee dance? Well now is your chance. Learn to move like a bee and see how much work it takes to create a delicious masterpiece called honey! Appropriate for ages 5 and up, $3 per child. RSVP a must!

Oxbow and the Natives—

February 16th at 3:45pm. This free, all ages program is an in-depth look at Florida native species. Stay afterward to watch the Oxbow ambassador eat their favorite foods.

Treehouse Time—

February 18th at 9:30am. Warm-up with your little one by moving like an animal and experience a different side of nature. This program is energetic, free, and fun for ages 3 to 5 with an adult.

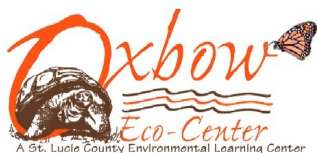

Brown Bag Lecture—

February 19th, Noon - 2pm. "To Bee or Not To Bee... It's a Serious Question" Bring your lunch and learn about the history of honey bees, the critical role they play in the natural world and our everyday lives, and the mysterious disappearance of entire bee colonies across the country from Apprentice Beekeeper Michelle Peterson This is a free lecture.

Becoming a Naturalist—

February 26th, 1:30 - 3:30pm. Join our naturalist for an in-depth look at Florida's birds. We will spend some of our time outside, so please prepare accordingly. $5 per person; FREE for registered volunteers. Space is limited so RSVP is a must!
